

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3986 - SB 4064

February 5, 2008

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires a provider of cellular communication services to preserve any cellular telephone communication for 14 days after a user requests such communication be preserved. Violations are punishable through civil penalties, private rights of action and as a Class B misdemeanor.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenue – Not Significant
Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Increase Local Revenue – Not Significant
Increase Local Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- A not significant increase in revenue from collection of additional civil penalties.
- Any cost can be accommodated within existing resources without an increased appropriation or reduced reversion.
- There will not be a sufficient number of prosecutions for local governments to experience any significant increase in revenue or expenditures.
- A small increase in cases in the court system, which will result in additional state and local government expenditures for processing the cases and additional state and local government revenue from fees, taxes and costs collected. These expenditures and revenue are estimated to be not significant.
